

BACH SOCIETY OF SAINT LOUIS
CHORUS ATTIRE

For all Concerts: No cell phones, alarm watches, or pagers. No cologne or perfume.

FORMAL CONCERT ATTIRE

Men: Black tuxedo with white tux shirt and black bow tie; black shoes and socks. Coat buttoned when standing. Men will add a red pocket square for the Christmas concert.

Women: A floor-length (covering the ankles) all-black dress; elbow-length or long sleeve; black hose (or trouser socks); black flats or low heels; small earrings and necklace permitted. Palazzo pants (not slacks) and dressy black blouse acceptable. When in doubt, remember that you are standing next to a man in a tuxedo!

No short sleeve, sleeveless or bare shoulders. No velvet or sequins. No jewelry that jingles!

INFORMAL CONCERT ATTIRE

Men: A long-sleeved black shirt, open collar; if wearing a T-shirt it must be black or not visible. Black pants, shoes and socks.

Women: A full-length black dress, or a black skirt and blouse, or dress slacks and blouse. Sleeves may be any length, but no halter top, strapless or spaghetti straps. Black flats or low heels.

“Dress rehearsals” are always casual attire. Whenever the Chorus performs in anything other than formal attire, advance notice will be given.
