

BACH SOCIETY OF SAINT LOUIS

A. Dennis Sparger, Music Director and Conductor

79th Concert Season 2019-2020

Dates, repertoire and venues subject to change

THE BACH SOCIETY OF SAINT LOUIS

MOZART REQUIEM

Sponsored by Lutheran Church Extension Fund

Sunday, October 27, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.

1st Presbyterian Church, Kirkwood

Mozart's profound masterpiece, the unfinished Requiem in D minor, never fails to embrace and inspire audiences. Although Mozart's student Franz Xaver Süssmayr gave his best effort to finish the Requiem after Mozart's death, Süssmayr's technical shortcomings marred the work's true potential. Our performance will instead utilize the 1971 version by Franz Beyer that corrects these shortcomings and follows Mozart's model more closely. The Requiem is paired with Bach's festive setting of the Magnificat in the brilliant key of D major, composed for his first year in Leipzig! Guest soloists soprano Emily Birsan, mezzo-soprano Alice Anne Light, tenor Gene Stenger, and bass David Rugger join the Bach Society Chorus and Orchestra.

CHRISTMAS CANDLELIGHT CONCERT

Ranked by BBC Music Magazine as one of the Top 20 Christmas concerts in North America

Sponsored by Emerson

Tuesday, December 10, 2019 at 7:30 p.m.

Powell Hall

Ranked among the top 20 Christmas concerts in North America, our Christmas Candlelight Concert has long been a St. Louis tradition! Powell Hall is beautifully decorated for the season and provides the perfect setting to experience the music that celebrates the true meaning of Christmas, including Francin Poulenc's vibrant and colorful setting of "Gloria," featuring soprano Michele Kennedy. Plan now to join us to be uplifted by new and familiar carols, the beloved candlelight processional, and even a few audience carols, plus... a special appearance by The St. Louis Children's Choirs. A beautiful and lasting memory is assured.

BACH'S ST. JOHN PASSION

It is more beneficial to ponder Christ's Passion just once than to fast a whole year or to pray a psalm daily. ~ Martin Luther

Sponsored in part by Carol Sagner

Sunday, March 22, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.

Webster Groves Presbyterian Church

Bach's St. John Passion is a dynamic telling of Christ's journey to the cross that reaches right into the listener's soul. Indeed, John Eliot Gardiner asserts that it "packs a more powerful dramatic punch than any Passion setting before or since." Singing the role of the Evangelist is tenor Steven Soph, while the words of Jesus are sung by Alexander Dobson. The meditative arias sung by soprano Josefien Stoppelenburg, countertenor Jay Carter, tenor Kyle Stegall, and bass Elijah Blaisdell offer time for the audience to "soak in" and contemplate personal meaning from each scene.

BACH, THE ULTIMATE INFLUENCER

Saturday, May 2, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.

Salem United Methodist Church

More than any other composer, Bach had the capacity to absorb every musical style he encountered. Additionally, his enormous contributions inspired countless composers who followed him. Join us as we explore music by some of the composers who influenced Bach, as well as those whose compositions were inspired by the music of Bach. The concert will include music by Palestrina, Gallus, Pachelbel, Buxtehude, Mendelssohn, Brahms, Gounod, Brahms and, of course, Bach himself.

Plus... ST. LOUIS BACH FESTIVAL 2020